

AN-2018-1222-A

REPÚBLICA DEL ECUADOR
Asamblea Nacional

THE PRESIDENT

REGARDING:

- That, motivated by the commemoration of the 100th ANNIVERSARY of the diplomatic relations between Japan and Ecuador, the Interparliamentary Friendship Group promotes spaces and activities aimed at strengthening cooperation and exchange of initiatives and projects of great collective impact;
- That, based on the firm construction of peace and solidarity, the parliamentary delegations promote a committed and visionary work, imbued with the enriching natural, historical and cultural resources that identify and give substance to the processes of change that society requires;
- That, the National Assembly of Ecuador highlights the openness and permanent commitment of the members of the Ecuador-Japan Interparliamentary Friendship Group, with a singular emphasis on the permanent effort to articulate a coordinated and reciprocal task that promotes the socio-economic and productive development of community; and,

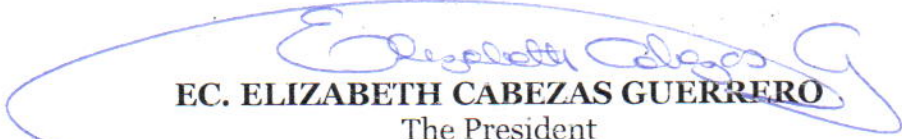

In the exercise of its powers,

AGREES:

TO SALUTE the Parliamentary Group of the House of Representatives of Japan, and to ACKNOELEDGES its permanent disposition of work and relevant management to generate the ideal conditions towards the construction of a culture of peace and understanding in function of the integral development of our peoples.

To award Mr. Yasutoshi Nishimura the José Joaquín de Olmedo medal, during his official visit.

Given and signed at the headquarters of the National Assembly, located in the Metropolitan District of Quito, Pichincha Province, at twenty nine days of the month of November two thousand and eighteen.

EC. ELIZABETH CABEZAS GUERRERO
The President

DRA. MARÍA BELÉN ROCHA DÍAZ
General Secretary